VARSITIES WIN ONE GAME AND ARE

Points.

Nearly 600 Fourth-of-July cranks, with boolutely nothing to do and every dispo-tion to ventilate their lungs, assembled at Island Park yesterday morning to witirginias. A score or more of ladies lent presence to the grand-stand and watched the contest with interest.

The home team outbatted their oppocents and played a cleaner game, but fortune was against them and victory perched on the banners of the students. At times the fight between the two nines was very exciting, but the cranks derived their main amusement from an unceasing per-secution of the umpire, Mr. Higgins, who did his best, but somehow failed to piease.

An enthusiastic voter from Petersburg, who long years ago made up his mind not to hurry through life, filled the box for the Virginias and tossed the sphere in a most commendable manner. His bearing was digmfied and his demeanor very gentlemanly, but twelve of the Varsities deemed it injudicious to contaminate their bats by fondling the balls he threw, and so they concentrated their energies with the stick upon the inoffensive atmosphere. Old "Puss" Luck, with the same smiling face and the same bandy legs, supported the Cockade-City twirler and maintained his quondam reputation as an all-round ball-player. He batted splendidly.

Lapop pitched for the "Varsities" in his usual good style and kept the hits well scattered. So delusive and uncertain were the apparently innocent-looking balls he tossed that eleven Virginia batsmen mote the mixture chemically known as oxygen, nitrogen and water-gas, carbonic acid, and ammonia witbout so much as touching the sphere. His receiver, Greenway, caught superbly and banged the horse-hade for a hone-run and two-bagger.

McMann lead the battery record with three singles and a two-base hit. Watts, the 'Varsity left fielder, made a beautiful running catch. As the battery work of both teams was excellent, the rest of the players had but little chance to show their skill, but the game on the whole was very interesting and exceedingly well played by both mines.

The score is as follows:

The afternoon game between the Virginias and "'Varsities" was witnessed by nearly 700 people, who enjoyed themselves equally as strong-lunced as those who preceded

The contest from beginning to end, was splendidly played, but the visitors were utterly unable to touch Enright, and so their opponents easily succeeded in adding another geose-egg to the record of the students. The Virgina twirler astonished his cranky admirers and did such splendid work that he was even surprised with himself. The "Varsities" only found him for three singles and a double, and these were so scattered that few of their runners managed to get as far as taird.

In nearly every inning the Charlottes-ville beys were retired in one-two-three order, amid the gleesome shouts of the bleachery fiends, who were decidedly in sympathy with the home nine.

Leffwich caught the phenomenon, and proved himself infallible, but the rest of Beiny Harrison's goslings had very little to do, as the battery monopolized the game. The elongated McDonald, who siumbered on second, awake in time to accept seven out of eight chances, and when aroused from his siestas he skipped around with much agility. Timothy West, a thoughtful youth, who smokes cigarettes and writes on a typewriter, constituted himself into a temporary receptacle for everything which came in his direction, while the genial Applegate did likewise.

Hame tossed for the "'Varsities" and pitched a splendid game, but he was poorly supported. By his machinations nine of the Harrisonian goslings fanned empty nothingness, while the hits they made off him were few and far between.

During the first and latter part of the game Marshall caught behind the bat and played well, as did Greenway, who at one stage of the contest was substituted for him. Lipop pitched the last two innings.

Penick Shelton's work at short was admitable, while Watts, as in the morning game, covered himself with glory by a brilliant running catch.

Fussell's Money-Other Cases.

Yessell's Money—Other Cases.

Yesterday was a routine Monday at the Police Court. Little birds sang merrily from the window cornices, while huge colored women and common white stragglers jostled and bustled against each other in the surging furmoil. A big crowd was on hand to see a big docket disposed of by the loquacious Justice. Scene after scene passed by with lightning-like rapidity and a constant shuffle was kept up in the prisoners' pen. Most of the sinners were those who were preparing to celebrate the Pourth in too inlarious a fashion and had all their fun anticipated and nipped in the bud by the inevitable bluecoats. All colors, nations, and sexes were represented, and the small urchin and vivacious little female were also on hand.

But withal there seemed to prevail a spirit of melancholy and sadness. In the face of every one there appeared an unsual plaintiveness and it was a mystery which, when solved, proved to have been ensbrouded with wee. Dan Turner, the good-natured, jocose batiff, who would rather keep his left hand on the pon-gale and his right on the Sergoant's desk and count the evil-doers than to whittle sticks in the Exposition-Grounds during fair time, was on hand for the last time in his filling served for four years, though his successor, Mr. Gibbons, peasesses some of Dan's qualities, an especial one of which

One of the first cases called was that of Wesley Fountain, the colored porter at the clothing-store of K. Fisher. Wesley, as was published in Sunday's Disparum, was arrested on Saturday by Sergeant Alexander Tomlinson, charged with feloniously stealing 891 from Deputy-Sheriff L. E. Fussell, of Henrico county, and of abstracting two pins valued at $170 and belonging to the proprietor of the store. The silver-tongued Giles Jackson filmfammed for the accused, and there being no evidence against the negro his counsel argued that any one else could have taken the things just as easily as the prisoner could. The case was dismissed

Jack Harman and George Coughlin were accused of being drunk and disturbing worship at the Evangelical mission, corner Eighth and Main streets. The affair occurred on Sunday night while Mr. S. B. Ginn was in the pulpit, and it is alleged that the young men were approached by officers of the congregation and requested to be quiet and more orderly before they were arrested. They were fined $5 each for being drunk on the Sabbath and sent on to the Hustings Court on the charge of disturbing the meeting.

Robert Worthington was fined $5 for being unable to navigate on the Sabbath and sent on to the grand jury of the Hustings Court for carrying concealed wenders.

Charles Rosser was required to give sent ings Court for carrying concealed weapons.

Charles Rosser was required to give security in the sum of $100 for twelve months for cursing Mrs. V. F. Blunt, mother of Lee M. Blunt.

Tom Jones (colored) was taxed $10 for the pleasure obtained in beating Lucy Weish in the street.

W. H. Wilkins (colored) went on to the grand jury accused of stealing a lot of groceries, the property of Joseph Levy.

Sallie Fox, a colored woman, charged with stabbing and wounding Ella Harris, was not in court and an attachment was issued for her.

Alexander Banks and George Smith were sent on to the grand jury for feloniously breaking into the dwelling house of Dr. E.

T. Robinson and appropriating to their own uses a lot of gas, and water-pipe.

Maggie Sullivan, a debauched young woman, who was arrested while drunk in the street, was sent to the almshouse.

The cases of Mike Meiden, charged with unlawfully abusing and threatening Arm McDonough, and Rosa Walker (colored), accused of beating Mary Alexander, were continued until Wednesday morning.

The crowd, being composed of goodnatured and happy picnickers who were out to enjoy everything, was quite entunsiastic and bestowed abundant applause upon all the good plays. The victory was the first one gained by the Manchester Club, but they led from the start and played quite well when their limited practice is taken into consideration. The superior work of Duke, who pitched for the Richmond boys, was the feature of the came.

Miss Fannie A. Squire, daughter of Mr.
L. S. Squire, died at the residence of her father, No. 623 east Frankin street, Sunday evening. The deceased had just reached the bloom of her young womanhood when attacked by the disease which finally carried her off. She was of a singularly sweet, sincere, and loyal disposition, and combined with beauty of person a purity of mind and a gentleness that cheered the hearts of all who knew her. For months prior to her death she was a confined invalid, but bore without a murmur her sufferings and the knowledge that a bright life which erstwhile seemed before her was shut out.

Her funeral will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock from St. Paul's church, of which she was a member. Peath of Miss Fannte A. Sq 1 ..
